

[A chance to recognise
the successful women
in your business]

International Womens Day 8th March, 2010

"Sharing and Caring for the Future"

Women in Business is a special feature published in the Daily Examiner on Tuesday 2nd March to celebrate International Womens Day. The Daily Examiner is offering you the chance to profile the exceptional women in your business in our feature 'Women in Business'. It's an excellent way to give the women in your business the recognition they deserve for their hard work and to promote your business in the Clarence Valley.

This is a great way to advertise your business with mass audience appeal, as The Daily Examiner pays tribute to our hard working and successful business women throughout the region. Avoid disappointment, call us to book your advertisement early.
